

Conference and Workshop

Artificial Intelligence in Palliative Care: Training, Ethics, Regulation, and Innovation

Programme

9h00 - 9h30

Opening Session

Institutional welcome
Presentation of the HENKO project
Workshop objectives

Raquel Losada/ Fátima González Palau, Coordinator of the HENKO NET project, Fundación INTRAS and representatives of the Gérontopôle Nouvelle-Aquitaine, CHU de Bordeaux and IPO Porto, organisers of the conference.

9h30 - 10h15

Challenges in the Implementation of AI in Healthcare Systems

Organisational barriers
Acceptance by healthcare professionals
Integration into existing clinical systems
Security and trust in AI systems

- Sara Cruz, Nurse, IPO Porto - Portuguese Institute of Oncology, Porto
- Mariana Ferreira, Research Assistant, IPO Porto - Portuguese Institute of Oncology, Porto

10h15 - 11h00

Training and Literacy in Artificial Intelligence for Healthcare Professionals

Skills required to work with AI
Initial and continuous training in AI for healthcare professionals
Integration of AI into academic curricula

11h00 - 11h30

Break

11h30 - 12h45

Ethical and Legal Framework of Artificial Intelligence in Healthcare

Data protection and GDPR
Legal transparency
Clinical responsibility in the use of AI systems

12h45 - 14h00

Lunch

14h00 - 16h30

AI Projects and Experiences in Healthcare (Portugal, Spain and France)

16h30 - 17h00

Closing Session