

Conference and Workshop

Artificial Intelligence in Palliative Care: Training, Ethics, Regulation, and Innovation

Programme

28 May | 9:00 - 17:00

9h00 - 9h30

Opening Session

Institutional welcome, Presentation of the HENKO project and Workshop objectives

Raquel Losada/ Fátima González Palau, Coordinator of the HENKO NET project, Fundación INTRAS and representatives of the Gérontopôle Nouvelle-Aquitaine, CHU de Bordeaux and IPO Porto, organisers of the conference.

9h30 - 10h15

Challenges in the Implementation of AI in Healthcare Systems

Organisational barriers, Acceptance by healthcare professionals, Integration into existing clinical systems and Security and trust in AI systems

- Sara Cruz, Nurse, IPO Porto
- Mariana Ferreira, Research Assistant, IPO Porto

10h15 - 11h00

Training and Literacy in Artificial Intelligence for Healthcare Professionals

Skills required to work with AI, Initial and continuous training in AI for healthcare professionals and Integration of AI into academic curricula

- Tiago Jacinto, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Community Medicine, Information and Health Decision Sciences, FMUP

11h00 - 11h30

Break

11h30 - 12h45

Ethical and Legal Framework of Artificial Intelligence in Healthcare

Data protection and GDPR, Legal transparency and Clinical responsibility in the use of AI systems

- Rui Nunes, Professor at FMUP and Director of the Bioethics Center.
- António Carvalho, Data Protection Officer, IPO Porto
- Ambre Laplaud, Professor on Health Law.

12h45 - 14h00

Lunch

14h00 - 16h30

AI Projects and Experiences in Healthcare (Portugal, Spain and France)

- Patrícia Coelho, Adjunct Professor, ESEP;
- Francisca Rego, Assistant Professor, FMUP;
- Fátima Palau, Director of Institute of Neurosciences and Wellbeing, University Siglo 21.

16h30 - 17h00

Closing Session

This program is free and available online.
It will take place at the CIM Auditorium - FMUP.

